DUTCH FLAT ENQUIRER.

SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 16.

Now, by St. Paul, the work goes bravely on. The Stars and Stripes are up for Liberty, Flag of the Nation—Talisman of the Free, Ours to the hand that dares to pull these down.

ABOUT OVER.—Since the last issue of the ENQUIRER, events have transpired in the East which warrant us in saying that "the backbone of the rebellion is broken," that "the rebellion is about to be thoroughly crushed," and that "the Angel of Peace is returning to our recently distracted country." The Union army has, for the past two weeks, achieved a succession of victories hitherto unequalled by any force ever marched to the field. On the 9th inst., Gen. Lee, of the Confederate army, formally surrendered the army of Northern Virginia to Lieutenant General Grant. This, we think about vindicates the career of the "Confederate States of America" so far as a respectable show of fighting is concerned. By the surrender of Lee, the head and front, brains and resources of the fighting element of the rebels suddenly drops off. It is confidently predicted that Johnson will follow the example of Lee; and it is already reported that Mosely and his guerrillas have disbanded and returned to their homes. The "condition" now of the rebels may be said to be hopeless; no money, no army, and no place for a footing; had they both, it leaves them in a position to accept with willingness any terms that may be proposed by the Government. There may be a little more resistance to the General Government, by way of guerrilla warfare, but the affair will soon end, for they will, as soon as caught, be strung up, which will have the effect of inducing those engaged to seek out other lands and occupations. So mote it be.

BURGLARY—BURGLAR CAUGHT.—On Thursday night last, a thief entered the dwelling house of Mr. I. N. Hammond of this place, and stole from the pockets of that gentleman a hundred and thirty odd dollars. The burglar effected an entrance by taking out one of the front windows; and after getting in, passed into the hall, through that to the bedroom of Mrs. H., and from that to the room occupied by Mr. H., where he secured the keys and ransacked everything that came in his course. Mrs. H. waked up and called to her husband, informing him that the hall door was open, when he got up and fastened it, and then took the light to make an examination, which resulted in finding the thief had away behind some female apparel in a clothes closet. Hammond immediately secured this prowler, and marched him to the hotel where he was properly cared for. Yesterday morning he was up before Justice Aubrey, and waived an examination. He was placed under bonds of $5,000, which he failed to give, and was escorted to the County Jail this morning.

LADIES' FESTIVAL.—By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that the ladies of this place intend holding a festival on Monday, May 1st, for the purpose of raising funds to furnish the new Union Church, now nearly completed, in this place. The festival will be held at the Dutch Flat Hotel, where singing and music will form a conspicuous feature of the evening. Some of the young people, we learn, have engaged the hall over the Golden Eagle Saloon, (which has undergone a thorough repair, and will be fitted up in an elegant style on the occasion,) and good music, where the intend "tripping the light fantastic." All are invited to attend, and as the tickets are placed at the very moderate sum of three dollars, we predict a full attendance. The object is one which should enlist the warm support of all the permanent residents of our town.

SHOOTING AFFAIR.—On Wednesday last, a shooting scrape came off between Barney Fitzpatrick and P. Bannan, partners in the Golden Gate claim near Gold Run. It appears that Bannan had considered himself imposed upon by Fitzpatrick at various times and in divers ways, concluded, on that day to put a stop to the matter, and providing himself with a revolver, proceeded to the claim, where he was met by Barney with a scolding in his hand, and Patrick commenced then and there to fire off his pistol in the direction of Barney. Shooting rather carelessly, only one ball took effect, striking Barney in the knee, when the exercises closed. The wound is not of a serious nature, as the wounded man was walking around the next day. Bannan was arrested on Thursday, but the examination was postponed till ten o'clock to-day, to allow defendant time to procure counsel.

AT HIS "OLD TRICKS" AGAIN.—Solikirk, in order to get rid of the responsibility of the article which appeared in his paper of the 5th instant, wherein he counsels the people to take the law into their own hands, and indiscriminately murder men, women and children, and probably having even that the better portion of our people view his bloody advice with loathing and disgust, tries to hedge off by saying that he was indulging in irony. Such lame excuses are an insult to the good sense of all who have any respect for order and humanity. Thought "scarcasm" wasn't your forte, Solikirk.

BURNT OUT.—Last week, the new dwelling erected by Mr. C. C. Brogan, near Gold Run, took fire and was entirely consumed, together with its contents. This is particularly unfortunate, especially of the present time, as we understand that the sufferer had made arrangements to have the dwelling occupied by a tenant every way satisfactory to himself.

NOTICE.—That Mr. Hillhouse says in his new advertisement to-day. He has just received a large addition to his assortment of hardware, tinware, pumps, etc., and says he is determined to sell the same at a very reasonable figure. He has engaged two workmen and is prepared to execute all orders in his line with dispatch.

NEW OPENING.—Pony Jones is again at his old tricks of catering to the wants of the public in the shape of furnishing fine wines, liquors and cigars to those who are addicted to the practice of using them. He is as old hand at the business and those who eschew beverages can be supplied with fragrant regalia, such as we have not tasted since we "puffed" on the steps of the "Fonda de Havana" Cuba.

LETTER FROM MEXICO.—We commence the publication of letters from Mexico from "our own correspondent," which will be found highly interesting. They are from the pen of an old and well-known former resident of Placer, and may be relied upon as reflecting the true position of the state of society, political position, and business prospects of that country. They will repay perusal.

NOTICE.—The advertisement of Mr. Hughes in another column. Jerry is said to be one of the best workmen in the State, and any orders left at his place of business will receive his prompt attention. Give the new man a call. He warrants all work.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Solon Atkinson, living about four miles above Auburn, was accidentally shot by Harry Lovell, on Saturday last. Atkinson died immediately from the effects of the wound. He was aged about seventeen years, and was generally beloved.

LETTER FROM MEXICO.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

MATZATLAN, March 10, 1865.

DEAR BOSS:—I left San Francisco for this place some three weeks ago, and arrived here safely after a series of trials and tribulations not necessary to mention. The first view of Matzatlan as you enter the harbor gives one a decidedly favorable opinion of the place. You see on all sides and directions groves of cocoa trees, shading the buildings and residences of the people, presenting a pleasant and picturesque view. You long to get near them, and rest under their beautifully proportioned boughs. Your vessel anchors, and with carpet sack in hand, you jump into a small boat, navigated by a Greaser, and after a row of about a mile, you bring up at the one lone wharf that the city is favored with. The next thing that requires your attention is the Custom House, standing gaping and in front of the aforesaid wharf. To this building it is absolutely necessary to pay your respects. You advance with carpet bag in hand, or in the hands of a Greaser, and an individual representing the sovereignty of this city proceeds unceremoniously to dive down in among your clothing, shirts, etc., and if nothing contraband is found, you are permitted graciously to depart. If you are fortunate enough to own a six-shooter, that is quietly laid aside, and you are told that you have no use for it at the present.

You are then prepared to make your entry into the city, which you do up narrow, crooked, but paved streets, until you reach what is called the American part of town, that is, up about the region of the Exchange Hotel. On your road you see but little to attract attention; the houses are all built adobe-fashioned, one story high, and all look alike; the windows are all protected by iron gratings, resembling the windows to American jails, and the doors come nearer looking like the entrance to a lively stable than anything that I can compare them to. After you have seen one house you have seen all, and in that respect your curiosity is gratified. The sidewalks are very narrow, not sufficiently wide for two men to walk conveniently together, and it is a fine thing that hoops are not fashionable here, for it would then be impossible for the ladies to navigate the streets at all. The Plaza, near the centre of the business part of the town, is a pleasant and inviting part of the city. It is well paved with smooth granite, enclosed by a substantial paling, with neat seats along the entire block. It has planted around it, and growing at convenient distances, large orange trees, the fragrance of which adds much to the pleasantness of the place. Here, every other evening, the French Band, consisting of forty-eight pieces, enlivens the hours with the most enchanting music I ever heard, and here during this time may be seen the greater portion of the population, and in the throng that wends its way in the promenade may be seen all classes and conditions of the people, from the lowest fisherman to the wealthiest and most fashionable, and the jostling and jolting of the one with the other does not attract the least attention. This place seems to be the property of all, and each seems to recognize the right of the other. There is a large force of French troops here, but not so many as a stranger would suppose from the number of gay uniforms that meet him at every turn, for go where you will, at every street, at every turn, at every crossing, you meet the throngs of Frenchmen, dressed in their gay, stylish uniforms. Red breeches meet you everywhere, and everywhere you are treated by them kindly and politely. You see no drunken or disorderly soldiers; you see none but who are dressed in a neat and becoming style, and you find none but who have the manners and style of a gentleman. A large number of French men-of-war are lying in the harbor, and there is no denying the fact that this place is firmly in their grasp. We hear of great many rumors, from the country, of fights between Corona's forces and the French, of varying success, etc., but generally nothing that is reliable. The French troops are out continually in small force in the country, but what they are doing it is impossible to tell. A short time ago they burnt the Presidio, twenty-two miles from here, and I have just learned that they have served Rosario in a similar way. These places are burned because they are the resort of guerrillas, who occasionally fire from the brush upon the passing French. The latter are picked up, too, now and then. But a little over a week ago, a party of Corona's men captured and hung, in sight of this city, a French Quartermaster and a Mexican Lancer in the French service, and at the same time stole two hundred mules. A portion of the mules, I understand, were recovered, but how many I cannot say. There are no two ways about it, the war is carried on in a gay old style; neither party gives quarter. I have heard a great deal about the cotton crop since I have been here, and have seen samples of as fine growth as I ever saw. I have not seen it growing yet, but from what I am told I am convinced that this country will compare favorably with the best part of the Mississippi valley. The crop this season has been considerably injured by the late rains, which are unusual here, but I hear of no crop that will fall to yield 1,000 pounds to the acre. I find many Americans here engaged in business; the English language is spoken nearly every house, and a person like myself, unacquainted with the Spanish tongue, has no difficulty in getting along. Of the mines and mining interests of the country I hear a great deal said, but as I contemplate visiting that region myself, I will reserve that subject for a future letter. Suffice it to say, they are almost exclusively under the control of Americans.

In conclusion I will say now that, should any of your citizens desire to visit this country, I would advise them to come well provided with the dinars, and they can then scarcely fail to make it yield them well; but a poor man had better rusticate among the gulebes and ravines of Placer than trust himself here. There, an easy living is before him; here, uncertainty, light wages, and lighter prospect of any employment at all; and such a thing as the credit system is unknown in this benighted land.

LOOK OUT—THIEVES AROUND.—Our usually quiet town has been thrown into quite a flurry during the week by numerous depredations committed by persons having no respect for the legitimate ownership of personal property. On Tuesday night the Wisconsin claim was robbed of seventy-five pounds of quicksilver. On the same night the Michigan company came in for the attention of probably the same solicitous individuals to a considerable amount of amalgam and quicksilver. On Thursday night, we hear, the Waukegan Company's claims were robbed but to what extent we have been unable to ascertain. From the above it will be seen that the thieves are now doing quite a lively business. Somebody ought to be hung; and we would not insure the hide of the hombre caught in any claims after this.

STAGE ACCIDENT.—The Calaveras Chronicle says that as the Sacramento stage was proceeding between Jackson and Sutter on Tuesday morning, it was overtaken, severely injuring Hon. S. W. Brockway and W. L. Dudley, Esq. These gentlemen were on the front seat with the driver at the time the accident occurred. Judge Brockway was badly hurt by the falling on him of the baggage, while Mr. Dudley had his arm broken below the elbow. For some hours it was supposed that Judge Brockway's injuries would prove mortal; he was taken to Jackson on a stretcher, where he remains. Mr. Dudley returned to town, where his arm was set by Dr. Holbrook.

STILL THEY COME.—Lyceburg surrendered on the 11th inst. to a lieutenant of a scouting party. The city was occupied by a brigade of cavalry to take care of the public property.

SURRENDER OF LEE AND HIS ARMY.

Official Correspondence—Details of the Surrender.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—War Department, Washington, April 9.—9 P. M.—This Department has just received official report of the surrender of the Army of Northern Virginia to the Army of the Potomac, on the terms proposed by the Army of the Potomac. Details will be given as speedily as possible.

R. M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

Headquarters Army of the United States, April 9, 4:30 P. M.—Hon. E. M. Stanton, Secretary of War.—General Lee surrendered the Army of Northern Virginia this afternoon upon terms proposed by himself. The accompanying additional correspondence will show the conditions fully.

U. S. GRANT.

APRIL 9.—General.—I received your note of this morning on the picket line, which I had come to meet you. I am glad to hear that you were embraced in your proposition of yesterday with reference to the surrender of this Army. I now request an interview in accordance with the offer contained in your letter of yesterday for that purpose.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
R. E. LEE, General.

To Lieut.-Gen. U. S. Grant, Commanding U. S. Army.
APRIL 9.—Gen. R. E. Lee, Commanding C. S. A.—Your note of this day is but this moment—11:50 A. M.—received, in consequence of my having passed from the Richmond and Lynchburg Road to the Farmville and Lynchburg Road. I am at this writing four miles west of Walter's Church, and will push forward to the front for the purpose of meeting you. Notice sent to me on this Road where you wish the interview to take place will meet me.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
U. S. GRANT, Lieut.-General.

APPROXIMATE COURT-HOUSE, April 9.
Gen. R. E. Lee, Commanding C. S. A.—In accordance with the substance of my letter to you of the 18th inst., I propose to receive the surrender of the Army of Northern Virginia on the following terms to wit:

Rolls of all the officers and men to be made in duplicate, one copy to be given to an officer designated by me, the other to be retained by such officer or officers as you may designate. The officers to give their individual parole not to take arms against the Government of the United States until properly exchanged, and each company or regiment commander to sign a like parole for the men of their commands. The arms, artillery and public property to be parked and stacked, and turned over to officers appointed by me to receive them. This will not embrace the side-arms of the officers nor their private horses or baggage. This done, each officer and man will be allowed to return to their homes, not to be disturbed by United States authority so long as they remain peaceable and the laws in force where they may reside.

Very respectfully,
U. S. GRANT, Lieut.-General.

Headquarters Army of Northern Virginia, April 9.
Lieut.-General U. S. Grant, Commanding United States Forces—General.—I have received your letter of the 8th inst., in relation to the terms of surrender of the Army of Northern Virginia, as proposed by you. As they are substantially the same as those expressed in your letter of the 8th inst., they are accepted. I shall proceed to designate the proper officers to carry the stipulations into effect.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
R. E. LEE, General.

The following is the previous correspondence between Lieut.-Gen. Grant and Gen. Lee, referred to in the foregoing to the Secretary of War:
Clifton House, Va., April 8.—Honorable E. M. Stanton, Secretary of War.—The following correspondence has taken place between Gen. Lee and myself. There has been no relaxation of the pursuit during its pendency.

U. S. GRANT, Lieut.-Gen.

APRIL 7.—Gen. R. E. Lee, Commanding C. S. A.—GENERAL.—The result of last week's operations on the part of the Army of Northern Virginia, in this struggle, I feel that it is so, and regard it as my duty to shift from myself the responsibility of any further effusion of blood by asking of you the surrender of that portion of the Confederate States Army, known as the Army of Northern Virginia, to the Army of the United States.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
U. S. GRANT, Lieut.-Gen.

APRIL 8.—General.—I received at a late hour your note of to-day in answer to mine of yesterday. I did not intend to propose the surrender of the Army of Northern Virginia, but to ask the terms of your proposition. To be frank with you, I do not think the emergency has arisen to call for the surrender of this Army, but as the restoration of peace should be the sole object of all, I desire to know whether your proposals tend to that end. I cannot therefore meet you with a view to the surrender of the Army of Northern Virginia, but so far as your proposition may affect the Confederate States, forces under my command, and tend to the restoration of peace, I should be glad to meet you at 10 A. M. to-morrow, on the old stage road to Richmond, between the picket lines of the two armies. Very respectfully, etc.,
R. E. LEE, General.

APRIL 9.—Gen. R. E. Lee, Commanding C. S. A.—Your note of yesterday is received. As I have no authority to treat on the subject of peace, the meeting proposed for 10 A. M., to-day could lead to no good. I will state however, General, that I am equally anxious for peace with yourself, and the whole North entertain the same feeling. The terms upon which peace can be had are well understood by the South. Laying down their arms, they will hasten that most desirable event, save thousands of lives and hundreds of millions of property not yet destroyed. Sincerely hoping that all our difficulties may be settled without the loss of another man, I subscribe myself,
Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
U. S. GRANT, Lieut.-Gen.

WAR DEPARTMENT, Washington, April 9.—9:30 P. M.—Lieut.-Gen. Grant—Thanks be to Almighty God for the great victory with which he has this day crowned you and the gallant army under your command. The thanks of this Department and the Government and of the United States—their reverence and honor—have been deserved, and will be rendered to you and the gallant officers and soldiers of your command for all time.

E. M. STANTON, Sec'y of War.

WAR DEPARTMENT, Washington, April 9.—10 P. M.—General.—That a salute of 20 guns be fired at the Headquarters of every Army and Department, and at every military post, and arsenal in the United States, and at the Military Academy at West Point, on the day of the reception of this order, in commemoration of the surrender of Gen. R. E. Lee, and the Army of Northern Virginia, to Lieut.-General Grant and the Army of the Potomac.

Report of the receipt and execution of this order to be made to the Adjutant-General at Washington.

E. M. STANTON, Sec'y of War.

LETTER FROM RED DOG.

FROM AN OCCASIONAL CORRESPONDENT.

CELEBRATION—MINING—CEMENT MILLS—PROSPERITY, etc.

RED DOG, April 10th, 1865.

MR. EDITOR.—The impromptu celebration of the fall of Richmond by the citizens of this place on the evening of the 6th instant was truly commendable to their patriotism and love of country; all rejoice that the stars and stripes once more float over the capital of the so-called Southern Confederacy; all rejoice that the dawning of better days was slowly but surely making its appearance; and the political horizon of the Southern States and that the last prop that stayed the Rebellion has certainly been broken by Grant and his victorious army. All felt that in spirit as well as in name we will stand in the eyes of the world a free people; all felt that while we rejoice over the victory of our armies, kings and monarchs will tremble. The spirit of patriotism that flowed from the hearts of all, would, perhaps, impress one unacquainted with this people that temperance societies or all temperance pledges were suspended on this occasion.

Mining in this vicinity is progressing, and the prospects of the miner bids fair to equal that of any previous year. Williams & Co., who during the past year erected a steam crushing mill with an eight stamp battery are running night and day and are realizing fair profits and are about to add a battery with four more stamps. The mill on the claim known as the Blue Lead claim, owned by Mallory, Garber & Co., is about crushing at present, they are now putting in a hurry gully wheel and will be ready to commence crushing the present week. The proprietors of this mill have given an Hunsbrow, Redding & Co. privilege of testing their hydrostatic engine which will be in operation about the 20th inst. Brown & Bro., in the vicinity of you bet, are running an eight stamp mill with the hurry gully wheel and have in their employ 20 hands. They are running night and day and are realizing handsome profit. Neece & West have now in process of erection a mill on their claim and will test the quality of their lead by the crushing of the dirt during the present season. Collins & Son, of Grass Valley, are about to erect a mill on their claim adjoining the claim of Neece & West.

The prospects in all branches of business are beginning to assume a healthy aspect in this vicinity. Without any further trespassing upon the columns of the ENQUIRER, I subscribe myself,
Yours truly,
CITIZEN.

THE JOURNAL OF THE TRADERS AND WORKMEN is the title of a new paper recently started in San Francisco. Its name indicates its object, and we hope it may succeed in accomplishing its mission. Capital and labor appear to have agreed in this age of money-making, to assume an antagonism which should be done away with, and the publication of the above named paper seems to have been started with this object in view. A just remuneration for labor is beneficial both to the employer and the employed. We welcome the Journal and bid it God speed.

HOPES FOR THE AFFLICTED.—In another part of this paper will be found the advertisement of the celebrated Institute established by Dr. J. C. Youre, in 1850. In this age of deceit and charlatanism it is a boon to the suffering to point out to them where they are sure of obtaining the wished for relief and cure. Under the care of the skillful Doctor the sick and troubled can divest themselves of their burdens of pain; lay aside their cross, and secure health and happiness. If you are sick or in trouble, do not hesitate. Read the advertisement and follow the advice. Do not forget the number nor the manner of directing your letter. Consultation Office, 549, Washington street, San Francisco.

MEDICAL CARD.—Success is said to be the criterion of merit. If this is so, Dr. Doherty is not an exception to the rule. Of the many physicians who advertise to cure the particular branches to which he has devoted his particular study, none has attained that wonderful and general practice which daily attend at his office. The great Record, of Paris, specially devoted his attention to the particular branch of Medicine denominated Specific and Chronic. Dr. Doherty has determined to do the same. Read his advertisement in another column, and the sworn statement of cures.
